

Every friend of immigration restriction should immediately request the two Senators to insist on the Harcourt Immigration bill being voted on at this session of Congress.

VOL. 6. NO. 8.

EMPLOYERS ACTIVE

AT "DENOUNCE FEST"

New York, May 26.—The National Association of Manufacturers, which was so loudly condemning the general investigating committee of the House on the subject of this city last week, has now been favored, and the non-union laborers have been condemned and a complete organization of all employers was urged by the business men of this country who are in sympathy with the American Federation of Labor.

The gathering was of the regulation sort, and the speakers were all of the same mind. The speakers were all of the same mind. The speakers were all of the same mind. The speakers were all of the same mind.

OFFICE WORKERS ORGANIZING.

Boston, May 26.—The Stenographers, Typewriters, Bookkeepers and Assistant Clerks' association is interesting office workers in the value of trade unionism, and has issued a statement which says:

"A minimum wage is not beyond our power. It is not beyond our power. It is not beyond our power. It is not beyond our power."

SHINGLE WEAVERS ADVANCE.

Seattle, Wash., May 26.—Officers of the International Shingle Weavers' union report steady gains in their efforts to secure a few cents more for their last convention. Compared with the last year, the shingle weavers have been forced to call numerous strikes to reclaim mill owners from the hands of the shingle weavers. The shingle weavers have been forced to call numerous strikes to reclaim mill owners from the hands of the shingle weavers.

NEW LANSING UNIONS.

Lansing, Mich., May 26.—As a result of the labor troubles in this city, the following organizations have been recently formed in this city: The Automobile Manufacturers' Association, the Painters' Union, the Plumbers' Union, the Carpenters' Union, the Electricians' Union, the Machinists' Union, the Ironworkers' Union, the Shipbuilders' Union, the Shipyard Workers' Union, the Shipyard Workers' Union, the Shipyard Workers' Union.

STATE UNIONISTS MEET.

Beaver Falls, Pa., May 26.—At the convention of the state federation of labor, the delegates from the various unions of the state met to discuss the various labor problems of the state. The delegates from the various unions of the state met to discuss the various labor problems of the state.

GAINS IN SCHEDULED.

Schenectady, N. Y., May 26.—After a four-day strike, the Painters' union secured a three-year agreement and a 10-cent increase in wages. The Painters' union secured a three-year agreement and a 10-cent increase in wages.

BREWERY WORKERS GAIN.

Houston, Texas, May 26.—The Local 100 of the Brewery Workers' union secured a two-year contract with the Brewery Workers' union. The Local 100 of the Brewery Workers' union secured a two-year contract with the Brewery Workers' union.

TWO-PLATON PLAN FAVORED.

San Francisco, May 26.—A committee composed of business men has unanimously declared in favor of a two-platoon plan for the city of San Francisco. The committee composed of business men has unanimously declared in favor of a two-platoon plan for the city of San Francisco.

COMPENSATION LAW

DOUBTLY SUPPORTED

Columbus, Ohio, May 26.—Section 23 of the Ohio workmen's compensation law, which provides for the payment of compensation to workmen injured on the job, was supported by the Ohio Manufacturers' association, appearing before the court as a "friend of the law." The Ohio Manufacturers' association, appearing before the court as a "friend of the law."

The question is now being considered by the state supreme court, and attorneys for the state federation of labor are defending the law. The question is now being considered by the state supreme court, and attorneys for the state federation of labor are defending the law.

PROFIT SHARING A FAILURE

Chicago, May 26.—The United Leader, a magazine of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers' union, has published a report on "profit sharing" schemes. The United Leader, a magazine of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers' union, has published a report on "profit sharing" schemes.

"S-A-DAY" BILL FAVORED.

Washington, May 26.—The house committee on labor has unanimously passed a bill, known as the "S-A-Day" bill, which would provide for a minimum wage of $1.00 per day for all workers. The house committee on labor has unanimously passed a bill, known as the "S-A-Day" bill, which would provide for a minimum wage of $1.00 per day for all workers.

TEAMSTER DEFENDS GIRLS.

San Francisco, May 26.—Big Michael Casey, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, paid tribute to the girls of the city who work long hours while talking on the radio. Michael Casey, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, paid tribute to the girls of the city who work long hours while talking on the radio.

STRIKE GUARDS ARRESTED.

Tiffin, Ohio, May 26.—Four strike guards employed by the Webster Manufacturing company have been arrested on charges of assault and battery. The strike guards employed by the Webster Manufacturing company have been arrested on charges of assault and battery.

BROOM MAKERS STRIKE.

Chicago, May 26.—Intolerable conditions at the factory of the United Broom Manufacturing company have led to a strike by the broom makers. The broom makers have led to a strike by the broom makers.

CARRYING RANNER LEGAL.

Minneapolis, May 26.—Judge Smith has ruled that the carrying of a banner is a legal activity for workers. The carrying of a banner is a legal activity for workers.

WIN THREE WEEKS STRIKE.

Los Angeles, May 26.—After a three-week strike, the Paper company has secured a new contract with the Paper company. The Paper company has secured a new contract with the Paper company.

BETTERMENTS FOR MOLDERS.

St. Paul, Minn., May 26.—Organized molders and coremakers have secured a one-year contract with the St. Paul Foundry and Machine Company. The molders and coremakers have secured a one-year contract with the St. Paul Foundry and Machine Company.

West Virginia Militia Ignored the Federal Constitution

Washington, D. C. SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1916.

Washington, May 26.—In a speech in the United States senate on national defense, Senator Borah showed how constitutional guarantees were ignored by the military commission in the case of the West Virginia militia. The military commission in the case of the West Virginia militia.

The military commission is substituted for the military commission in the case of the West Virginia militia. The military commission is substituted for the military commission in the case of the West Virginia militia.

COURT RULE EXTENDS HOURS

Madison, Wis., May 26.—In the opinion of the state industrial commission, the recent decision of the state court in the case of the Madison Industrial Commission, the recent decision of the state court in the case of the Madison Industrial Commission.

GAINS IN JAMESTOWN.

Jamestown, N. Y., May 26.—Brewery workers union has increased wages by 10 cents a week and secured a 10-cent increase in wages. The brewery workers union has increased wages by 10 cents a week and secured a 10-cent increase in wages.

TO SAFEGUARD HEALTH.

Washington, May 26.—The senate has passed a bill, known as the "Health and Safety" bill, which would provide for the health and safety of workers. The senate has passed a bill, known as the "Health and Safety" bill, which would provide for the health and safety of workers.

GAINS IN EAST LIVERPOOL.

East Liverpool, Ohio, May 26.—The Carpenters' union has secured a new contract with the Carpenters' union. The Carpenters' union has secured a new contract with the Carpenters' union.

WOMEN BOYCOTT WIN.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 26.—At a conference with the committee representing the women who declared a boycott of the Jewish quarter because of the price of food, the committee representing the women who declared a boycott of the Jewish quarter because of the price of food.

BOILERMAKERS WIN.

San Francisco, May 26.—Boiler makers' union has secured a new contract with the Boiler makers' union. The Boiler makers' union has secured a new contract with the Boiler makers' union.

ONLY SLAVE DRIVERS OFFER.

Madison, May 26.—It sounds logical to every one except the worst slave drivers, the Madison Industrial Commission, the recent decision of the state court in the case of the Madison Industrial Commission.

CARPENTERS WIN STRIKE.

San Francisco, May 26.—After a two-week strike, the Carpenters' union has secured a new contract with the Carpenters' union. The Carpenters' union has secured a new contract with the Carpenters' union.

CHURCHMEN DISCUSS

TRADE UNION ISSUE

San Francisco, May 26.—By a vote of 41 to 20 the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has adopted a resolution in favor of the trade union movement. The general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has adopted a resolution in favor of the trade union movement.

One of the strongest opponents of union recognition was Judge Kilgus of the United States federal court (Toledo, Ohio district). Judge Kilgus said: "We have heard some platitudes. We have heard some platitudes."

CLERGYMEN LEADS UNIONISM.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 26.—I believe in the cause of organized labor, and I believe in the cause of organized labor. I believe in the cause of organized labor, and I believe in the cause of organized labor.

EFFECTS OF IMMIGRATION.

San Francisco, May 26.—The Bulletin of the American Federation of Labor has published a report on the effects of immigration. The Bulletin of the American Federation of Labor has published a report on the effects of immigration.

PASS RURAL CREDIT BILL.

Washington, May 26.—By a vote of 219 to 191 the house has passed a bill, known as the "Rural Credit" bill, which would provide for the rural credit of farmers. The house has passed a bill, known as the "Rural Credit" bill, which would provide for the rural credit of farmers.

WIN BY ABSTENTION.

Newton, Mass., May 26.—A board of arbitration has awarded a 10-cent increase in wages to the workers. The board of arbitration has awarded a 10-cent increase in wages to the workers.

STEEL ORDERS DOUBLED.

New York, May 26.—For the third time this year the monthly statement of the United States Steel Corporation shows a record. The monthly statement of the United States Steel Corporation shows a record.

RAISE WAGES OF UNORGANIZED.

Powell River, British Columbia, May 26.—The "Powell River" union has secured a new contract with the "Powell River" union. The "Powell River" union has secured a new contract with the "Powell River" union.

RUBBER WORKERS GAIN.

East Palestine, Ohio, May 26.—Rubber workers' union has secured a new contract with the Rubber workers' union. The Rubber workers' union has secured a new contract with the Rubber workers' union.

AUTO SHOP GRANT INCREASES.

San Francisco, May 26.—Practically all the auto shops in San Francisco have accepted the $2.50 wage rate of the Automobile Workers' union. The auto shops have accepted the $2.50 wage rate of the Automobile Workers' union.

WHOLE NO. 268.

IMMIGRANTS NEED MORE THAN PATRIOTIC TALKS

Los Angeles, Cal., May 26.—In an address before the convention of California Federation of Labor, the secretary of the state federation of labor said: "The immigrants are the backbone of the nation. The immigrants are the backbone of the nation."

To meet this danger, numerous experiments have been made. To meet this danger, numerous experiments have been made. To meet this danger, numerous experiments have been made.

CARPENTERS CONTINUE GAINS.

Indianapolis, May 26.—General Federation of Labor has published a report on the gains of the Carpenters' union. The General Federation of Labor has published a report on the gains of the Carpenters' union.

PAINTERS RAISE WAGES.

Winipeg, Manitoba, May 26.—The Painters' union has secured a new contract with the Painters' union. The Painters' union has secured a new contract with the Painters' union.

PAINTERS WIN SHORT STRIKE.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 26.—After suspending work a few days over painting contractors in the city, the Painters' union has returned to work. The Painters' union has returned to work.

COAL HANDLERS GAIN.

St. Paul, Minn., May 26.—The Coal handlers' union has secured a new contract with the Coal handlers' union. The Coal handlers' union has secured a new contract with the Coal handlers' union.

RULES ON 10-HOUR DAY.

Columbus, Ohio, May 26.—State Atorney General Turner has ruled that the 10-hour day is a legal requirement for workers. The state attorney general has ruled that the 10-hour day is a legal requirement for workers.

RAISE WAGES A WEEK.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 26.—Market prices of various commodities have risen. The market prices of various commodities have risen. The market prices of various commodities have risen.